

Amish Story

There was a tour bus [of an Amish settlement] and an Amish man got on and they asked him, "What's the difference between you and us?" "Well," he said, "how many of you have television?" All of the hands went up. He said, "How many of you, if you have a family, think you'd be better off without television?" Practically all of the hands went up. He said, "How many of you are going to go home and get rid of it?" No hands went up. He said, "That's the difference between you and me, because we will do it. If it's bad... we will not have it."

---From "The Amish," an Oregon Public Broadcast documentary, aired February, 2012